

PROJECT MANAGEMENT CHALLENGE 2006

Third Annual NASA Project Management Conference

BIOGRAPHY

Ms. Randy Hoffman
Project Manager
Information International Associates, Inc.

Biography:

Ms. Hoffman is a Project Manager for Information International Associates, Inc., library operations contractor for the NASA Goddard Library. She has managed numerous special projects, including the Digital Asset System, in support of Goddard's Library increasingly digital environment. She is involved in various projects center-wide in support of knowledge management initiatives and the connection of the library with the needs of Goddard's projects. Prior to joining Information International in 2002, she managed the Oak Ridge National Laboratory's Information Services Group and Research Libraries. Ms. Hoffman has over 20 years experience in library and information management.